-FISHING -

This is the title of a handsome engraving, SIZE $9x26 inches, finished in the highest style of the engacing art, on a beautiful tinted etching paper; a fallsful copy and reprint of Mr. A. Rudaux' picture, withinked in 1889. It represents a handsome young fourest who is engaged in talking to a beautiful country maden, while unconscious that the fish have taken his balt away. This is no well executed wood-cut but an actual etching by one of the best Houses in M. I. Chiv, the original plate of which cost many thousands of deliars. This handsome picture which relate for $1.00, we now offer to our readers free of charge. Cut this out, enclose it immediately (with Mr. 2003; for mailing,) to A. RERMANDER BOX 1996. New YORE, and you will receive the above picture by return mail. Don't fall to send and enclose stages.

T. THOMAS FORTUNE

Will introduce the Lectures.

Miss Wells made a National Reputation as I did of the Temphis Free Fpeech, the publication of which also was compolled to authend because of her Bold, Fearless and Intelligent Donunciati in of Mah Violence and tile enactment and enforcement of malicious and disgrading class law .

As a platform orator Miss Wells takes high and comproding rock to un evenest and eloquent speaker. No wo man of the Bace has gave to supersions they gauses to hold the attention of an audience. In a public atthe before the Afro-American League at Knoxville, in July, 1891, she astonshed her heavers by her impassioned denunciation of the Separate for Law and Meb Rule. In her lecture on "The Afro-American in Literature," delivered better the Concord Library Circle of Brooklyn, New York September 15, 1892, she completely continued the formal and cultivated audience; and at the Test monial tenegral her by the segment of New York City and Brooklyn, at Lyric Hail, New York, Octo- 1, 192, the moved the vast assemblage to tears by the pathetic registed of the total and the bing. of three of her friends at Memphis, in March, 1 wh, and the force as the hand
